The Silent Massacre - Part 1

Electronic Torture & Mind Control in America and Law Enforcement Complicity

By Nicholas Kirkland

Author's Note

In recent years, scientists have learned how to locate by remote, focus on, and lock into a person's brain to manipulate that person's thoughts and thus his actions. Mind control assaults now loom as one of the main challenges of the 21st century. The targeted person often never discovers that he has become a mind control victim, and he ends up hurting others, taking his own life, or simply becoming another "Alzheimer" statistic. This paper discusses some of the elements of what I call Electronic Stalking and Mind Control (ESMC).

While writing this paper, the people who monitor me electronically and continually interfere with my computer and emails and tap my phones, often entered my PC to make changes in the narrative to discourage me and try to make me look crazy. Keeping the paper intact and ensuring accuracy has been a constant battle. Even now, after finishing the paper, when I go back to add a salient point, I often find that a portion has been altered or deleted. Powerful forces do not want papers such as this one written and disseminated.

Fortunately, the internet brings together targeted individuals (TIs) of electronic torture and mind control from all conceivable backgrounds. Race and ethnicity, color, gender, religion, politics, philosophical views, and all other human characteristics and thought, fade and become one as targets suffer from the same evil. This paper is written principally for those victims.

Some readers may find this paper objectionable when I talk about who initiated my ESMC and who probably continues to manage it by proxy. Nevertheless, I hope that the reader can get past those objections and read the entire content. Targeted individuals (TIs) will readily identify with what I talk about in this paper. Those who are not TIs, but who are intellectually curious about electronic and mind control assault, will learn much about a sick attack upon tens of thousands of targets that also indirectly affects everybody in lives of those targeted individuals.

The human resources and the enormous cost required to carry out electronic stalking and mind control, re-enforced in many cases by gang stalking, almost certainly limit its use to governments. Only governments can mobilize the enormous outlay of funds and successfully camouflage the use of those funds. Only governments have the sophisticated equipment and computers required for electronic abuse and mind control. Only governments can train in secrecy the cadre of handlers who administer the electronic assault and mind control activities, using deception and psychology. Even mega corporations and businesses would not be able to carry out electronic assault and mind control in secrecy unless they did so under cover of government work and with government protection. Several countries, including the United States of America, have experimented with directed energy weaponry and mind control for many years.

Background

I was first targeted for surveillance by the Israelis in a South American country no later than 1978. Let me back up to explain. I was working for the U. S. Government in South America when the 1973 Arab-Israeli War broke out. An historian by academic training, I started looking into the causes of the war and realized that Israel was not the poor beleaguered nation that U. S. media portrayed but instead pursued internal and foreign policies that caused most of the Middle East problems. Shortly after my "enlightenment," pro-Israeli Americans with whom I worked started testing my views. Their attempts to intimidate me had the opposite affect. Instead of remaining quiet, I became more vocal in expressing my beliefs.

Only recently have I remembered an incident in that country that may have portended the current electronic torture and mind control. In about 1976 or 1977, for several evenings while in my bedroom before retiring I was struck suddenly with a sense of overwhelming gloom that tended toward panic. It dissipated during the night, and the following day I felt normal. In retrospect, I believe that either my mind may have already been "hooked" and unknown persons manipulating my mind or I was being targeted by some remote-operated electromagnetic force. (More on that later.)

Five years later I was assigned to a different South American country. One of the national employees who worked in my section was a Jewish woman who had worked with the Israeli Consulate before that office closed, and then she began working with the U. S. representation in that country. One day when I had a problem with a molar, I asked that person to recommend a dentist. She referred me to a German Jewish "dentist," who supposedly did a root canal on that tooth. After retirement, in the 1990's, I went to an American dentist with problems with the same molar on which the South American dentist had supposedly performed the root canal. The local dentist found in the tooth a tiny cylindrical pin-like object. At the time, I thought little of it. However, now in retrospect, that little object had to be a tiny "bug." The South American dentist also wanted to place a filling in-between my two front teeth, claiming that there was decay between the teeth. He obviously intended to implant an incredibly tiny camera in that location. Thirty years later those two teeth remain perfectly sound.

I liked the employee who recommended the dentist, and at the time I had no reason at all to doubt that she was just a nice, friendly national employee who happened to be Jewish and who happened to find work with the U. S. Government. When other employees reported to me that she got to the office early in the morning to go through the papers in my desk, I dismissed those charges as simply tales manufactured out of jealousy. After I left the country for another assignment, that employee lost her job. Although I had given her excellent performance evaluations, she told others that I caused her to be fired. In actuality, I did not find out that she had been dismissed until much later. In hind sight, I believe that her guilt convinced her that I had found out about her duplicity. Apparently that employee did not stop working with the Israelis when she took the job with the U. S. Government.

In the 1970's, Israeli Nazi hunters were still active in South America. The "dentist" probably worked with them, and the employee in my office may have also cooperated in the hunt. One of the contractors who worked with the American Government and who alternated between Argentina and the country in which I was assigned was known to be associated with that group. The U. S. Government, in fact, cooperated with and probably even funded the Nazi hunters. The "Nazis" probably included anybody who opposed Israel and its pro-Israel factions.

The minuscule device implanted by the dentist in South America in the late 1970's may have had only limited capability. It was undoubtedly used to listen to my conversations as well as perhaps to track my movements. Since that time, however, much more sophisticated, high-tech, intelligence-gathering and mind control equipment and software have been developed, tried, and put into operation.

Over the years, I continued to speak out against Israel's foreign policy and our support for it. In the 1970's, I defended the Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO) when it was still considered a renegade group, and in 1984 I became a member of the American-Arab Anti-Discrimination Committee at a time when Americans were being led by the U. S. media down the anti-Moslem path. I never occupied an important decision-making position in the government; yet, to the Israelis, an enemy is an enemy, regardless of his rank. I articulate my thoughts, and my friends respect my opinions. Thus, I am a threat.

In 1985, I was reassigned to an African post. Several years later, on the eve of the Gulf War, when it looked like President George Bush (the elder) was going to attack Saddam Hussein, I objected to that action. Taking advantage of a process known as the "dissent channel," in which American government employees abroad may express opposition to U. S. foreign policy, I sent several cables to the Secretary of State stating my opposition to the war and pointedly charging that the principal reason for the U. S. attacking Hussein was not to assist Kuwait but to fight a proxy war for Israel to maintain Israeli hegemony in the Middle East. However, the media had already pumped up the American public to support the so-called Gulf War. I was among only a handful of thoughtful Americans who opposed that war, and I am quite sure that my opposition became duly noted by U. S. pro-Israel factions as well as the Israelis.

My cables criticizing both the U. S. and Israel for their Middle East policies may have triggered much more advanced electronic surveillance. My hind-sight observations tell me that probably in the early 1990's pro-Israel elements within the FBI took over my surveillance from the original perpetrators when I retired and returned to the United States, probably on the pretended grounds that I was a subversive and a suspected terrorist. Their mind control assault on me probably began in the early-1990's and increased in intensity over the last ten to fifteen years.

When I retired in 1991, I continued to speak out against Israel in conversations with friends and in letters to editors of newspapers. I knew that elements in U. S. intelligence loyal to Israel had placed me on their "watch" list and that they were following my activities. After retiring, I continued to travel abroad occasionally, usually to Central America, where I owned property. Once when I returned to the Houston international airport from one of the trips, a rookie immigration official processed my entry. A veteran officer stood nearby. When the rookie scanned my passport and viewed his monitor, he looked perplexed. He turned to the older officer and pointed to something on his monitor that he obviously did not understand. The veteran officer took a quick look and said, "ADOD" (Advise Department of Defense).

My computer has been hacked and my phone tapped for years. A recent accidental discovery strongly suggests that the hackers and phone tappers are Federal agents or foreign agents working with the permission of U. S. intelligence. Here is what happened. One day I entered my email Sent File to copy a paragraph that I had written to a correspondent about the tiny device having been implanted in a molar while living in South America in 1978. I cut and pasted that paragraph and re-sent it. Because my computer is monitored and my emails sometimes deleted or changed, I went back to the Sent box to see if the message had actually gone out. When I opened the sent message, I was astonished to see three words encased in blue-lined rectangular boxes: ISRAEL, MIDDLE EAST, and SOUTH AMERICA.

As a former government employee, let me explain why those three areas were highlighted. Intelligence organizations in every country divide their offices into geographical areas, including Israel, Middle East, and South America. Copies of my email went to those three offices in some intelligence agency in some country. Every U. S. law intelligence agency, including the Department of State and other agencies, has personnel sections that deal with regional affairs. Whoever monitors my email spotted my references to Israel, the Middle East, and South America and marked that email for copies to be sent to those regional affairs offices. I suspect that copies not only went to U. S. intelligence agencies but also to the Mossad.

The secret monitors never imagined that I would go back into a previously sent letter to cut and paste. Finding the highlighted words was a total accident, but a very fortunate one for me, for it told me that somebody monitors my email correspondence and that he is not looking for kiddy porn, drug, and money laundering rings but for material dealing with political views. After passage of the so-called Patriot Act, anybody working with the FBI can justify monitoring a citizen's email and tapping his phones without getting judicial approval.

Later, to make their flub-up appear to be a computer glitch or a common internet action, the same monitors encircled other words on several other letters; however, when they saw that I had not fallen for that deception, they quit doing it. In view of the fraternal cooperation between the FBI/CIA and the Mossad, the monitor of my emails could be an agent of the latter. What I do not know is the location of the person who monitors my computer, as computers can be hacked from anywhere in the world, including Monroe, Louisiana, where I live, New York City, or Tel Aviv.

Freedom of expression in the United States seemingly comes at a price. Although I have never belonged to the Ku Klux Klan, the Aryan Brotherhood, the Survivalists or any other radical organization, I have openly and consistently condemned Israel. As an American, I thought that I had the right to do so. Apparently I was wrong. One can publicly criticize England, France, Mexico, or any other country in the world -- except Israel.

That point is supported by Israeli spokeswoman Tzipora Menache, who was reported in a February 1, 2009 article as saying, "You know very well, and the stupid Americans know equally well, that we [the Israelis] control their government, irrespective of who sits in the White House . . . . We control congress, we control the media, we control show biz, and we control everything in America. IN AMERICA YOU CAN CRITICIZE GOD, BUT YOU CAN'T CRITICIZE ISRAEL." But I do.

Having always considered myself a fervently patriotic citizen, I smolder at being made a surveillance target and now a target of electronic torture and mind control because of my personal and political views, especially my foreign personal and political views. If communication with radical and terrorist groups is the only object of my surveillance, that surveillance would have concluded years ago that I am not a domestic terrorist or a threat to the United States of America. That suggests that I am perceived by either pro-Israel U. S. intelligence or Israeli intelligence as a threat to Israel and thus the reason for my surveillance. The aim of Israel and its pro-Israel American accomplices is to stifle any opposition at all in the United States – and worldwide -- to Israel, and American intelligence appears only too ready to lend assistance toward that objective.

This paper is not about Israel; nevertheless, I feel compelled to make several observations about Israel, as Americans will never see anything critical of Israel in the controlled mainline U. S. media:

(1) Israel often “creates” its enemies to justify its agenda, knowing full well that the United States will back it. Despite the media hype, the facts show that Israel has made no genuine effort to make peace with its neighbors. On the contrary, through its actions it has ensured continued Arab and Moslem hostility.

(2) Israel purposefully engenders the belief that it is surrounded by hostile forces, as it unites the Western world in its support and opens pocketbooks on its behalf. Indeed, the U. S. provides no-strings budget support for Israel that far exceeds the entire budgets of most developing countries.

(3) American politicians and the press tout Israel as one of the United States’ staunchest allies; yet, Israel employs spies in the United States. Several spies for Israel have been caught in the last few years and incarcerated only later to be quietly pardoned by the president or otherwise quietly released later by our government to Israel.

(4) Israel uses its pro-Israel supporters in the United States, not all Jews by any means, to promote its plans for Middle East domination using American resources. We have already fought two proxy wars for Israel and intervened in Somalia, Sudan, Libya, Yemen, Lebanon, and other Middle Eastern and African countries in support of Israel’s foreign policy. In addition, we lost scores of American soldiers when Islamic bombers blew up barracks in two Arab countries (Lebanon and Saudi Arabia) and blew a hole in the U.S.S. Cole near Yemen because of our unswerving support for Israel.

(5) Israel is one of the biggest exporters of small arms and assault weapons, many of which end up in the hands of gang members on American streets and along the Mexican border.

A very large number of presidential political appointees are ardently pro-Israel, and they even use their diplomatic positions to back Israel’s agenda. The American ambassador in an African country in which I served, who happened to be Jewish, told newly assigned employees point blank in an initial briefing that a part of our duty would be to support Israel. I could hardly believe my ears. His remark was clearly intended for me. Knowing my political views, he may have been baiting me to openly protest his orders and thus give him reason to send me back to the United States.

That Israel views any anti-Zionist views as dangerous and attempts to silence those views is obvious. That pro-Israel organizations in the U. S. perform unlawful acts to advance Israel’s agenda is indisputable. That Israel and its U. S. backers have reason to want me and others silenced is readily evident. They are masters, however, in using misinformation and developing schemes to get others to perform their dirty work while they sit and watch several layers removed from the action.

The Discovery

Although it is now obvious that I had been targeted since the late 1970’s, or perhaps earlier, I did not discover it until December 7, 2005, when my assailants, or handlers, started bombarding me with electrical-like jolts, strong vibrations, and other physical torture. The first vibrations were so strong that I could hardly stand on my feet. I gradually learned that the physical electronic effects, although annoying and painful, were simply used to “soften” or “sensitize” or “pre-condition” me for the real objective – mind control. I later learned that victims are normally targeted for years before they finally realize it. Some targets suffer physical attacks for years and visit doctors frequently without realizing that their symptoms are not natural.

Four days after the electronic attack, the handlers, began "talking" to me subliminally through my brain. Of course, only I could hear their talking. At the time that the ESMC hurled me into reality, I was sixty-eight years old and in exceptional physical and mental health. Although I was initially startled by the “voice-to-brain” communication, I knew full well that I was not schizophrenic. As an historian and former government employee, I understand the value of documentation. Thus, on the very day that the electronic effects first pounded me, I started recording a detailed journal in which I recount my experiences and my thoughts concerning that topic. The journal today comprises six volumes and about a thousand pages of single spaced typescript.

I do not yet know how the perpetrators of the electronic and mind control assault “hooked” my brain by remote. I have had many inoculations, much dental work, and several minor medical procedures performed over the years in various locations. However, as the reader will later see, whatever method was used, it had been employed in my case by the early 1990's and probably long before, perhaps even dating back to the 1970's.

Targets and Non-targets

Shortly after starting my journal, I began researching the topic and communicating with many other victims. Almost invariably those victims, like I, had ignored signs of electronic stalking and did not realize for a very long time that they had been targeted. That is one of the techniques that the stalkers use. The electronic torture and mind control activities are “progressive.” Electronic and mind control stalkers begin very slowly and gradually increase the intensity of the electronic and mind control effects until finally they are too obvious for targets to ignore. Although many of the effects are similar, they do vary from target to target. Many of the targets, for example, do not hear the voices. Nevertheless, they are there.

Through my subsequent research and communications with victims, I learned that stalkers may target any person regardless of race, ethnicity, gender, social and economic status, religion, or age. Most of them are just plain law-abiding citizens who mind their own business. ESMC is not peculiar to only the United States. People in countries all over the world are reporting electronic and neurological assaults. However, this paper deals with only that which occurs in the United States.

Strangely and perhaps suspiciously, some Americans appear exempt from electronic harassment and mind control:

(1) Congresspersons and high ranking U. S. Government officials, including ambassadors. Lower ranking employees and ex-employees of government, however, are often targeted, especially “whistleblowers” and those discontented with the status quo. Postal workers very often become targets, which very well may explain the shooting sprees and rampages of some of those employees.

(2) High ranking state-level officials.

(3) The clergy, although members of Fundamentalist Protestant and Roman Catholic churches often become targets. Some of those victims complain that their churches may be involved in their harassment.

(4) Law enforcement officers. Although I have heard obliquely of police officers being electronically assaulted, I have never actually corresponded with or read a complaint by a law enforcement target. The exclusion also applies to prison authorities, U. S. marshals, Border Patrol, DEA, the entire U. S. intelligence community, including the Secret Service, sheriffs, and sheriff's deputies.

(5) CEOs and very successful businesspersons.

(6) High ranking military officials. Enlisted personnel are often targets; however, I have never seen any material about officer-level personnel having been targeted.

(7) The medical community.

(8) The wealthy. I have never read anything about a millionaire having been victimized by ESMC. Most of the targets are middle-class workers, small business owners, retirees, and sometimes financially- and socially-marginal persons.

(9) Judges and lawyers. The perpetrators know that judges and lawyers possess credibility and also know the laws and would thus be able to leverage law enforcement into action.

(10) Persons with expertise in radio and electronics, who could perhaps eventually figure out what device is being used and how.

There are two logical and plausible reasons why most of those particular people are not targeted:

(A) They are a part of the conspiracy, either directly or indirectly, and thus protected.

(B) The perpetrators know that those targeted groups would possess the intellectual credibility and the power to command investigations of their attacks.

Theories of Methods Used in ESMC

It is indisputable that electronic and mind control assault operates by remote. That means that some object makes contact with the human body over a distance through the air. Thus, whatever method is used must operate along some type of frequency. Almost anything today can be controlled by remote using particular radio frequencies: satellites; rocket ships; less sophisticated free flying machines like military spy drones; garage doors, and indeed almost any other motorized equipment. To allow those frequencies to contact it, the human body must carry in or on it some object, substance, or characteristic that will attract those frequencies. Evidence of that is seen in a target's being lasered while in the presence of others. In my case, certain voice inflections and tones of narrators on TV also cause jolts in my body; those sounds could only come from electromagnetic waves.

Satellites now possess amazing capabilities, all performed by remote, and they may very well be utilized in electronic assaults and mind control. In a 2001 article called Shocking Menace of Satellite Surveillance <http://educate-yourself.org/cn/flemingshockingmenacesatellitesurveillanc...> John Fleming wrote about the use of satellites in ESMC assault. Discussing the realities of satellite-driven ESMC, Fleming said: "The victim's movements will be known, his conversations heard, his thoughts picked clean, and his whole life subjected to bogus moralizing, should his tormentor diabolically use the information gained. A sadist could harass his target with sound bites, or audio messages, directly broadcast into his room; with physical assault with a laser; with subliminal audio messages that disturb his sleep or manipulate persons around him into saying something that emotionally distresses him . . . .” The GPS [Global Positioning Satellite] almost certainly figures somehow in the electronic assault and mind control activities. At any rate, that a victim can be targeted regardless of his location and movement argues that a satellite must be involved.

This paper does not explore in depth the methods used to zero in on a person’s mind. There are many schools of thought on that subject. Here are some of them.

One popular theory states that victims are implanted with microchips. Scores of patents dealing with microchips in the human body have indeed been filed, many of which, in the wrong hands, could be utilized for electronic abuse. I have read of only one person who supposedly located microchips in his body, had them surgically removed, and then had them identified. My efforts to contact that individual failed. In my opinion, his claims have not been authenticated. We know, however, that many forms of microchips have been developed for the human body, most of them capable of being controlled by remote.

Another theory believes that voices can be recorded, transferred to a computer, and the computer then used to lock onto that person’s brain. Experiments show that that can indeed be done. However, for a computer to connect with the brain requires some type of catalyst. One day when the handlers were vibrating me mercilessly, I tensed my throat, and the vibrations stopped. That caused me to remember an incident that occurred when I served in Africa in the 1980’s. One day while working in my office, the secretary from the embassy political section, the office that serves as a front for our CIA agents, called me to ask some question that anyone could have answered. I hardly knew the caller; thus, I instantly realized that the real purpose of her call was to record my voice. However, I believed that it was probably for security purposes in case of kidnap or being held hostage at some point. That our intelligence community was recording voices in the 1980’s makes me believe that there may be some validity to the theory that perpetrators of ESMC may be able to “hook” our brains by zeroing in on our voices. Voices give off distinct vibrations that are as peculiar to a person as his fingerprints and DNA.

Concerning DNA, some evidence also suggests that targets’ minds can be “hooked” if the handlers know the targets’ DNA. If that is true, targets would not necessarily have to have a microchip or other object or substance in his body to be hooked. There may be some remote device that with the aid of the GPS will locate a person and “hook” him using his DNA. If DNA can be utilized, society is in deep trouble, for obtaining DNA samples of people is a very simple matter. Even touching a glass or a can will leave useable traces of DNA.

Still another theory talks about small devices (nano-microchips) made so small that they can fit between molecules of water and other liquids and be injected into the body in shots and inoculations. Patents taken out by scientists describe that very procedure. Other theories include wiring in the ear that connects with the brain, pins that penetrate the skull, and some type of substance ingested into the body through normal food and drink.

There is also evidence that even human breath or breathing somehow figures in electronic torture and mind control. Yet, we do not know whether it has any connection with “hooking” a target’s brain. I tend to believe that the breath, or perhaps the movement caused by breathing, enables or aids the handlers’ device, for I much later found out that when I hold my breath for a few seconds, the vibrations temporarily cease.

In addition, MRI [Magnetic Resonant Imaging] machines have been successfully combined with computers and used by remote along radio frequencies to move digits and limbs, detect emotions, and “detect lying, racism, and even identify which image a person is looking at, suggesting [that] one could visualize scenes from a person’s dreams or memory” (Hospital Soup.com, June 10, 2008). The uses of a device such as that are endless if used on the brain’s wave lengths or frequencies.

Similarly, neurotransmitters can be used by remote to communicate with brain cells through electrical impulses. That device can tap into the brain’s functions that cause body movement, thought, feelings (emotions), and communication. It could probably also influence the thalamus, or the inner part of the brain, which regulates body temperature and controls urges such as eating, sleeping, and sexual behavior.

Laser guns may play a role in ESMC. A CNN news program on February 23, 2009, told that 148 incidents of lasers aimed at airplanes had already been reported since the beginning of the year. In the last incident, the laser was green in color and about the size of a pencil. If a laser beam can be focused to such a fine point over several miles of distance, imagine what it could do when trained on an individual or an object over a period of time.

Mounting evidence suggests that a substance or an object can also be introduced sexually into a target’s body to “hook” his or her brain. Several of my correspondents mention that their ESMC began after having had an intimate relationship with somebody. Those relationships may have been set-ups. Spies and undercover agents often use sex to entrap individuals. Some such object or substance could possibly be introduced into targets vaginally, orally, or anally through sexual contact.

All that said, pick a theory. In truth, we do not yet actually know how high-tech assailants capture a victim’s mind; neither do we know what instruments are used in the process. Both are highly guarded secrets shrouded in deception. In fact, there may be several methods of “hooking” the target.

Once the brain is “hooked,” it is controlled by remote using a device connected to a computer. That computer has an amazing range of capabilities. We shall later see some of those capabilities and the effects they have on the human body and mind. Whatever the device and method that may be for “hooking” the brains of the targets, I suspect that when we discover the truth – and we will – the system will probably turn out to be far less sophisticated than we imagined, perhaps a laser gun used with the GPS along a certain frequency or something similar.

Whatever the device may turn out to be, most of the symptoms in my case occur on the head, which leads me to believe that if there is an object in my body, it is probably located in that region. Here are some of the effects on my head: tinnitus (ringing in the ears); tops of ears oozing a colorless fluid; sensation of bubbles popping in mouth; salivating from the mouth at any time; pin pricks on the eyes and a loss of vision; the top of the nose coating over with a thick crust; tingling on the skin (as a result a brown spot has appeared on the right outside nostril and a sore-type depression, on the right side of my chin); clicking on my head and in my left ear; frequent, long-lasting, pin-like prick on the back of my neck; the sensation of flies crawling on my face; a psoriasis-like area on my cheek near the left eye; a very sharp sensation on or in several teeth (as if a dentist drill had hit a nerve); a heavy pounding, throbbing in the back of my head; an unnaturally intense itching in the corners of my eyes and on my eyelids; pin-like pricks in the depths of my ears that cause me to shudder violently; air that pushes my lips out as if I were snoring through my mouth; scratching of the throat, which causes either sneezing or coughing; a tingling inside my nostril that induces sneezing; blockage in my esophagus that makes it difficult to swallow; constant itching inside my nostrils that makes you want to “pick your nose;” and of course the voices that occur in my brain or ears. (More about symptoms later.)

The Silent Massacre - Part 2

Electronic Torture & Mind Control in America and Law Enforcement Complicity

[Editor's Note: While I hold a different view from the author concerning the reality of the Illuminati and reptilian alien overlords, his perceptions of the players involved in psychotronic torture, harassment and street theater largely concur with my own, based on numerous conversations with many people who have been victimized by this monstrous affront to privacy and human dignity which government and law enforcement are suppose to protect us from; and not inflict upon its own citizens. ..Ken Adachi] .

[ESMC = Electronic Stalking and Mind Control]

Deception

The attackers, or handlers, use deception to reinforce mind control. Many of the physical symptoms that handlers cause in targets are merely deceptions. When a victim is struck with ESMC, he first believes that the objective is to torture him physically. Although the handlers gleefully apply the torture techniques, their real objective is mind control. Through voice-to-skull contact, the handlers can manipulate the target without the target being aware of it.

Local handlers will probably not be highly trained in deception, which means that the handlers are probably not local. If that is the case, the handlers will very likely be employees of national intelligence, the military, or companies, universities, and private labs that provide technology to our government or foreign governments – fulltime and occupational handlers. However, wealthy individuals, religious groups, and other organizations could possibly have gotten access to that secret technology by now. If that is true, the local handlers could possibly be adequately trained.

Quite a few correspondents who have been targeted and who communicated telepathically with the handler perverts stated that the handlers sometimes attempted to convince them to cooperate with them. In several cases, the handlers have tried to convert the targets into good “Christians,” which, considering the cruelty and unlawfulness of those “Christians,” is a real joke. In my case, the handlers often show me holographic pictures of a man in robes who is generally believed by Christians to be Jesus and tell me that I am going to hell. Again, that is total deception.

A whistleblower who worked with the U. S. National Security Agency (NSA) under a defense contract wrote in an internet article: <http://educate-yourself.org/mc/nsamindcontrolandpsyops20aug99.shtml>

“. . . the subject is unknowingly given hypnosis while the subject is completely awake and is tortured and punished with this hypnosis into a predetermined behavior by the National Security Agency. . . . the behavior is usually extremely religious, is called ‘reborn’ by the church, with the subject’s life-long goal of ‘a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.’” The NSA uses this technology [electronic torture and mind control] to resocialize (brainwash) the US civilian . . . population.”

That aim may be the link between the government and Fundamentalist preachers <http://educate-yourself.org/cn/britishisraelhiddenhand10jul05.shtml> It is worthwhile noting that many Christian churches today receive government grants, an act once believed to violate the principle of separation of church and state, which began in the 1970’s. When I ask TIs to describe their symptoms, when those symptoms began, and their general physical environment, they very often mention that a Fundamentalist minister lives next door, across the street, or very nearby. A law enforcement officer will also often live very close.

I can tell the reader that the handlers themselves are most definitely NOT real Christians and could not possibly be truly religious in any fashion. Yet, they deceptively try to give that appearance. Handlers will also try to convince the targets that they are of particular ethnic groups, e.g., Latinos, East Indians, Afro-Americans. They reinforce that deception through “wrong number” telephone calls posing as persons of those ethnic groups. I continually get “wrong number” calls from black- and Latino-sounding people from various area codes in the United States.

The handlers also deceive through playing “good cop-bad cop.” Often my handlers deride my work efforts and methods as I carry out home improvement projects. They taunt and belittle me as I work. Then, after a few minutes of blustering and disparaging the activity, one of the perverts will make a very complimentary remark about some aspect of the work. I am supposed to warm up to that individual. To an educated target, their psychology is juvenile. I call it “pre-nursery school psychology.”

Impostors

Impostors flood the internet with misinformation on ESMC to throw victims and researchers off track. Every intelligence agency has an operational section whose aim is to spread false propaganda. The propaganda machine spreads misinformation over the internet through several types of “plants” in the media:

(1) Webmaster “plants” working for the perpetrators use the internet to spread erroneous and misleading information. Those liars pretend that they were abducted by aliens, tormented by people who look like lizards, and subjected to rituals performed by Reptilians. They link ESMC with UFOs. One of the favorite lies is that a group of families called the Illuminati seeks to control the world. More recently, the misinformation agents have convinced many targets that they come from a particular genetic strain or blood line and were thus targeted before or from birth. Many of the TIs who actually believe those things are very well meaning and have been convinced of those inaccurate concepts through voice-to-brain emissions. That is exactly why we call that deception “mind control.”

(2) Internet blogger “plants” strew erroneous material in their online blogs.

(3) TI “plants” in various internet forums write pedantic emails, oftentimes belittling authentic TIs and refer other viewers to lies disseminated in bogus web sites and other locations. Some of those plants relate convincing stories; however, eventually they trip over their many lies and astute TIs can pick them out of the crowd.

(4) Author “plants” also produce misinformation published in on-line articles, in magazines, and even in books about electronic assault and mind control.

Now, not all of the information spread on the internet, in articles and books, and by internet correspondents is false by any means. Even many of the people who spread misinformation and disinformation are very sincere. I do not pretend to be expert in determining which information is false and which is true; however, I have learned that much of it is utter rubbish. Electronic assault and mind control itself is incredible enough without being compounded by deliberate lies disseminated by the ESMC perpetrators.

Let me be perfectly clear. The perpetrators of mind control are NOT aliens from outer space. NOT members of the so-called Illuminati. NOT men who can change to reptiles and lizards and other paranormal shapes. NOT ritualistic sex lords seeking sex slaves. NOT men seeking to wipe out particular blood lines and genetic groups. NOT members of the Masonic Order. And probably NOT seekers of a New World Order. Targets who believe those deceptions have been successfully manipulated by the perpetrators. Know that electronic and mind control assault is performed by evil-minded, cruel, degenerate, two-legged, walking, sub-human sacks of street garbage working either with the government, with the knowledge of the government, or under the protection of the government. In some cases, the government may even be a foreign country conducting assaults by remote on American citizens and residents.

The power brokers behind electronic torture and mind control fear the targets’ networking over the internet. Many bloggers and persons with web sites who encourage an interchange of ideas about ESMC and who are true TIs have been subjected to internet intimidation by having their blogs and web sites deleted or otherwise compromised. Some have had to change the names of their sites several times because of that interference. Keep in mind, however, that some of those same people may actually be accomplices pretending to be harassed. More deception.

Capabilities of Perpetrators of ESMC

The only fact that we know for certain about mind control is the symptoms, or how ESMC manifests itself to the victim. Targeted individuals are well aware of the capabilities of the assailants, but for those readers who may be reading about electronic stalking and mind control for the first time, here are some of them.

(1) Monitor movements. They not only know one’s vehicular movements but they can also view him and follow his movements on his property and even inside his house. Once they “hook” the target with their equipment, they have ready access to the him at all times. Their torture follows the target wherever he goes, even to other states and abroad.

Cell phones may play a role in monitoring a target’s movements. Many TIs trace the origin of their electronic torture and mind control to the early 2000’s, when cell phone usage was becoming increasingly more popular. Cell phones have to be used in the case of gang stalking, which goes right along with ESMC. In fact, the stalkers could not coordinate their harassment against targets without the use of cell phones or some type of walkie-talkie. Cellular phones may even somehow be used with the device that renders the electronics effects on victims. It is known that cell phones carried on one’s person near credit cards can cause those cards to malfunction and wear out quickly. Credit cards are one of the hundreds of items that operate through the RFID (radio frequency identification).

(2) Hear and record one's conversations along with those with whom one talks. This can be done even in a moving vehicle or while on foot in a rural area. The harassers occasionally record and play back to the victim excerpts of some of those conversations in his brain. The handlers can also record a person's voice and then simulate that voice.

(3) See through the victim's eyes. One's eyes are controlled by his brain; thus, by controlling the victim's brain, the handlers can also see whatever the victim sees. Not only that but they can also see what he thinks.

(4) View the victim's body whether it is clothed or not and zoom in on any part or organ of the body, even in the darkness. EKG, CT scans, and MRIs can be performed by remote. The handlers probably use the GPS with directed sound to see and torture the target's body by remote. NASA has long used similar telescopic instruments for carrying out delicate space operations.

(5) Inject holographic pictures or images into a victim's thoughts. In my case, the handlers have shown: my son drowning; pictures of what is believed to be images of Jesus; and pictures of family members and friends, sometimes in suggestive poses, and countless numbers of unknown individuals in induced dreams and thoughts. When I pray for my grandchildren, a girl and a boy, the perverted handlers will sometimes show my granddaughter's school uniform dress flying upward, showing her little panties and legs. Sometimes the pervers show me old photos in black and white, further evidence that the handlers can communicate through my eyes.

6) Apply a variety of torture techniques to the body. Many of those effects may perhaps be accomplished through the use of silent directed sound and various PC software used over the voice-to-brain communication. Others may be psychological or aided by psychological suggestions through the psychopaths' subliminal talking and whispering into the target's brain. Those effects include

A) Sensation of pin pricks in the eyes, shoulders, face, feet, elbows, and other areas. The pin prick can be instantaneous or can be prolonged. In my case, the handlers have long caused an enduring pin prick on the rear of my neck. At first I thought that the sensation was an irritation on the neck caused by shirt labels; however, when it kept hurting in the absence of labels, I knew that it was only one of the pervers' bag of tricks. In addition, the sensation was not in the same location as the shirt labels. They can also cause the entire lower legs to feel like they are being struck by pins. In recent months, they have pin pricked the depths of my auditory canal in my right ear, causing me to shiver violently

B) Restless legs. A sensation begins in the small of the back and extends into the extremities, causing the "restless legs" syndrome. I can feel that sensation coming on as the handlers apply their vibrations to my body. Sometimes when that happens, the legs will jerk involuntarily.

C) Electrical jolts. These affect the entire body and feel much like the shock that one gets from touching a low voltage electrical fence.

D) Tremors, or vibrations. These can affect the whole body or be focused on specific parts of the body. They can range from very mild to violent. (I believe that the jolts and vibrations may partially be pre-hypnotic suggestions causing the target to think that he feels jolts and vibrations whenever the handlers whisper the code word. In other words, those physical effects may instead be psychological effects resulting in physical reactions. I have asked other people to touch my legs and body when they were vibrating, and they felt nothing.) The vibrations can envelop a large area, e.g., a lawn, including the house, or they can narrow down to a very small area, e.g., a target's stomach or his nose.

E) Zapping in/on the head. These sound much like sparks from a welder's torch or like children's sparklers used as fireworks on holidays.

F) Clicking in the ear. (In my case, it is always in the left ear, never in the right one.)

G) Severe cramping, mainly in the calves of the legs.

H) Numbness in the limbs from the base of the spinal column to the toes.

I) Coughing (I can feel an unnatural scratching in the inside of my throat), and sneezing (likewise, I can feel an artificial tickling in the inside of my nostrils).

J) Induced erections, by vibrating very lightly the inside of the urethra and the groin. Those erections usually occur while the handlers whisper the names of friends and relatives, very obviously attempting to cause the target to associate the sexual sensation with those people.

K) Stomach aches and pains, indigestion, nausea, and dizziness.

L) Sodomizing, using some unknown force to probe the anal cavity (perhaps directed sound waves, which cause a strong vibration and can focus on a particular very small area).

M) Lethargy and listlessness. I suspect that many people suffering from Chronic Fatigue Syndrome are actually victims of ESMC.

N) Tinnitus. I had never suffered from tinnitus before the electronic stalking began. It hit me the day the stalking became overt, and I have had that condition ever since then. The tone of the ear ringing changes often in a very notable manner.

O) Inability to urinate or frequent urination. I had two prostate procedures in 2001, although the prostate was not enlarged, because I had the urge to urinate but could not do so. Now I know that it was the work of the perverts who use the ESMC techniques, for since the handlers became overt in 2005, they have continued making the bladder often seem full. Now I can hear them whispering, "Don't piss."

P) Constipation. Likewise, I often used to have a problem defecating. Since I have developed an ability to "hear" the handlers' whispers, I hear them saying, "Don't shit." The brain learns over a period of time to react to their commands. However, knowing now what causes the constipation, I am no longer affected by it.

Q) Frequent defecation. The handlers constantly probe my anal cavity and whisper for me to "go shit." According to other victims, this is a very common symptom. Making victims defecate often is psychological as well as physical, as it humiliates victims and keeps them from leaving home. That particular effect, however, has not adversely affected me. I still control my bowel movements.

R) Sleep deprivation. All of this leads to sleep deprivation, which then becomes a symptom itself. This is designed to weaken the victim's body as well as his mind and cause him to have motor, household, and other accidents. In addition, it makes the victim more vulnerable to mind control.

Conversely, the handlers' device can also make targets incredibly sleepy and actually cause his eyes to close involuntarily. There appears to be a particular form of vibration that will "wire" the target to keep him awake at night.

S) Sensation of crawling insects on the face and neck.

T) Intense itching. This can be any place on the body. They often will make it seem like a mosquito bite or a fire ant bite. The itching is normally on the hands or the feet.

U) Twitching of the fingers. The perverts not only want to annoy you but also convince you that you are developing Parkinson's disease.

V) Partial loss of sight. The handlers do something to the eyes that make them feel as if a grain of sand is underneath the eyelid. They also cause pin pricks in the eyes. I have lost much sight in my left eye as a result. I do not wear glasses to read or to drive. Until a few months ago, I could read the TV captions clearly. Now I have to be very close to the TV set to see the captions and I often have double vision and blurred vision, especially in the left eye. In addition, the lips and mouths of speakers on TV are not in sync with their words. I also recently discovered while watching Wheel of Fortune on TV that the movements are likewise not in sync. When the participants in that program spun the wheel, the result on my TV (or in my vision) was about two clicks of the wheel off what they should have been.

W) Throbbing in the head. This has something to do with "mining" the brain or it is part of the psychological conditioning to make the target believe that he must reveal his thoughts.

X) Aches and pains in various parts of the body. I am very physically active; thus, the handlers attempt to cripple my knees and my right arm and hand (I am right handed) to keep me from being able to work. They can also cause arthritic-type pain in the hands, pains in the lower back, and extreme pain in the legs by striking the sciatic nerve.

Y) Salivation. The pervs' device can cause me to salivate at night while I sleep as well as during the day when I am active. For no reason, spittle will sometimes seep from the corner of my mouth.

Z) Tingling vibration focused on the outside of the right side of the nostril (it can, of course, focus on any location). As a result of the vibrations (or perhaps lasering) on that area, a small brown bump has appeared at that location. That bump remains very sensitive and often runs and forms a scab.

AA) Involuntary physical movements. For example, when I type my emails and computer documents, the pervs' software, which constantly pummels my brain, causes me to reverse certain consonants and vowels, slowing down considerably my typing speed. Other targets have suffered serious falls, when the devices caused their knees to buckle. The handlers' device can also cause the arms and legs to flail and jerk involuntarily. I have awoken while sleeping when one of my arms flailed into the head board.

BB) Heart flutters and irregular palpitations. In particular, the perverts cause the heart to beat at a far greater than normal rate, or at least they lend the perception that it is beating rapidly through psychological or perhaps post-hypnotic suggestions. The handlers want the target to believe that his heart is overworking and that he may suffer a heart attack, stroke, or chronic heart problems.

CC) Pressure on the bladder, causing the victim to want to urinate very often. Because of that sensation, I underwent two painful and costly prostate procedures with a urologist before I knew the real cause of the problem. The pervs still apply pressure on the bladder; however, now that I know that it is their evil work, it does not bother me.

DD) Sores in various areas. The perverts continually vibrate (or laser) the outside of my right nostril, which remains continually sensitive. That area scabs over, loses its scab, and then scabs over again. A spot has also developed on my chin, where I often feel the tingling of their vibrations (or lasering).

EE) High and sudden temperature rises in the body. Those may be psychologically induced.

The symptoms listed above are some of those that have occurred in my case. Other targeted individuals may have experienced other symptoms, perhaps in addition to those I have listed. Just as the groups of handlers differ, so do the symptoms that those handlers cause.

Curiously, in the 1990's I discovered one day that the muscles in the calves of my legs pulsed unnaturally. There is absolutely no somatic explanation for that strange occurrence. There seems to be no particular pattern to the pulsing. Moreover, weather and other conditions do not seem to affect the pulsations. Some days there is much less noticeable pulsation than other days. I believe that the strange pulsing, which continues to this day, has something to do with the electromagnetic pulsing or frequencies of whatever device is used by the handlers to connect with my mind.

In the same period, I noticed that the tops of both ears had begun to exude a colorless fluid that became crusty. Likewise, there is no physical explanation for that condition, which still continues whether I use sun screen or not. Other victims have mentioned the fluid coming from the tops of the ears. Also, the top of my nose forms a crust. I remove it with a soapy bath cloth one day and the next day it reappears. Sun screen does not prevent its doing that. I do not have particularly sensitive skin.

More recently, I have noticed a white spot about a quarter of an inch in diameter on my chin. Like my nose and ears, that spot becomes covered with a film, except that instead of feeling crusty, it feels soft. The hairs of my beard are thicker and much more numerous in that small area. As the sociopath handlers focus on particular small areas, they may be trying to cause skin cancer or melanoma.

All of the physical effects described above are intended to cause in the target a feeling of helplessness. The target has absolutely no defense against the torture, and his frustration, anger, and anxiety mounts. Nobody believes him. Law enforcement will not investigate his claims. When that scenario develops, the handlers have achieved what they wanted and anticipated.

The electronic jolts and vibrations also affect domestic animals. My handlers can beam their frequencies (or whatever) in broad waves that cover very wide areas, including my yard and the adjoining pasture. My dog, which is an outside pet, is much affected by the electronic assault methods, despite her being in excellent health and getting regular checkups by the veterinarian. She often trembles violently and appears frightened. At times, she pants heavily, gulping for air, and almost collapses. She very often shakes her head as if she is trying to get something out of or off her head. I've taken her to the vet twice for that symptom, and he diagnosed her both times with an ear infection and prescribed her medicine. Despite that, after two and a half years, she still shakes her head. My cat, on the other hand, does not seem to be affected by the electronic effects. Gender could not be a factor, as they are both spayed females.

(7) Cause the target financial problems. Keep in mind that most targets live on fixed incomes and most of them have to live frugally. Yet, the handlers employ a bag of tricks designed to drain the target financially by

A) Making the target spend thousands of dollars on remedies and gadgets that supposedly neutralize or ameliorate the effects of ESMC and causing him to hire detectives to investigate the ESMC.

B) Causing the target to make mathematical errors on his taxes and other documents that result in substantial losses.

C) Affecting the target's judgment that ends in his making faulty and costly decisions.

D) Destroying expensive household and other items, making targets have to replace them. In my case, they have ruined two printers, two blenders, and other household items. Their device, however, can only affect machines that have small motors or batteries. My coffee makers, which have no motor, are not affected.

E) Distracting the target so that he forgets to pay bills on time, leading to his paying penalties.

F) Creating problems with the electrical system and mechanical devices, especially computers and printers, that make targets have to hire technicians to repair. I have had to hire PC technicians several times at from $75 to $140 a visit.

G) Urging the targets through their voice-to-brain whispers to buy expensive, though needless items.

H) Fomenting personal and other problems that require that targets hire lawyers. A TI correspondent wrote about her taking videos of neighbors overtly harassing her and then being arrested for that action. She had to hire a lawyer to get out of jail and is now awaiting trial. Of course, nothing happened to the harassers. Moreover, now that law abiding citizen has an arrest record that will follow her to the grave.

I) Sending targets to hospital emergency rooms due to physical problems they cause with their devices. One TI correspondent rushed to the ER on at least three occasions when the handlers caused her throat to constrict, keeping her from breathing.

J) Ruining the targets' credit. The manipulators and their accomplices will steal credit card and other statements from the targets' mail boxes or "lose" them in the postal system, causing targets to pay late fees; by whispering into the targets' brains, make them forget to pay bills; and interfere with the targets online payments to cause them bill payment problems.

K) Robbing targets of their time by harassing them continually with electronic assault and mind control, thus keeping them from tending to their business affairs. Very often targets lose their jobs because of the ESMC distractions in their lives. I have spent countless hours taking notes, recording them in my journal, corresponding with other TIs, researching on the internet, and trying objects and ways to neutralize the ESMC effects, time that I could have spent on home improvement projects and other useful activities. I am a very able genealogical researcher, and I used to spend hours a day at that pastime. Now I very seldom do family research because of the many distractions that affect my concentration.

Causing targets financial ruin is one of the aims of the handlers. Many of the targets with whom I have corresponded have depleted their savings and have gone into bankruptcy because of the per-verts. Others have become virtually street people. The handlers set out to break targets financially, and they often do.

(8) Knock out and interfere with the function of battery-operated or electrical household items. In my case, the handlers have changed radio stations, caused halogen flashlights to blink and go out, caused the tiny lights in a fingerprint reader used for PC security to quiver, disabled my new printer so many times that it is no longer usable, caused interference in TV programs, made mechanical grasscutters stop functioning, ruined batteries in multiple flashlights, burned out electrical wall outlets, caused microwaves not to function, caused two almost new blenders to quit functioning, burned out watch batteries while the watch was on my wrist, and changed the functions of certain keys on the keyboard of the computer – all by remote. Their device can even cause the ink in pens to congeal or dry up so that the pens will not write. All of this suggests that the pervs use directed silent sound beamed in by a radio frequency and guided by the GPS.

(9) Manipulate the target's computer and telephones. By hacking the computer and tapping the phones, the handlers are able to interfere with the target's communication system and thus harm his relationships with family members and friends. One of the chief aims of the handlers is to totally isolate the target from society.

(10) Discredit the target by making him appear insane or demented. They will also spread rumors about the target designed to isolate him. Those rumors will usually suggest that the target is a drug pusher or user, a child molester (one of their favorites), a wife-beater, a common whore, a rip-off artist, a closet drunkard, a white collar thief, and others. In addition to socially isolating the target, the handlers also seek to cause the target anxiety and other psychological problems that drive him to a psychiatrist, who then diagnoses him as schizophrenic. The handlers know that once the target sees a psychiatrist and it becomes a matter of record, the target's sanity becomes an issue. Afterward, whatever the target says will be treated as suspect. This is important to the handlers, as they know that the target will be discredited if he seeks out law enforcement. The handlers will also send duplicate emails, change words in your emails, and resend emails days after the original to your correspondents to make you appear crazy.

(11) Register the target's emotions. Their software allows them to use the target's pulse rate and probably other methods to record emotions such as anxiety, panic, fear, frustration, anger, sadness, loneliness, and others. The emotions actually appear in the form of words that surface in your thoughts, e.g., frustration, loneliness. In addition, the perverts continually whisper those words into your brain to actually cause those emotions. Handlers prepare loop play tapes of whispers whose design is to play on the target's emotions. (More about whispers later.)

(12) Transmit voices into the brain that only the victim can hear. When I first heard the voices, I was driving in Texas not far from the Mexican border. The radio was turned off, as it normally is when I drive. The voices seemed to come from near the driver's door side panel. My first thought was that a device, or a bug, had been planted in the vehicle and was somehow being used to project the voices. A sweep of the vehicle by a private detective the following day did not reveal a bug. Still, it took me a couple of more days to realize that the voices were coming through my brain.

The perpetrators of mind control are very methodical and deliberate. Trainers of the handlers must have studied a very detailed training manual. At first, the handlers normally only call the victims ugly names, then they gradually begin to talk directly to the victim. Over time the victim learns that he can also talk to them. Finally, the two parties establish a dialogue albeit in an acrimonious fashion. Once I found out that I could also "speak" to the sickos telepathically, I used that ability to ridicule, taunt,

Every target who is electronically harassed by remote wherever he goes is also subjected to mind control, often without his knowledge. Whether the target realizes it or not, his brain is being continually hammered twenty-four hours a day by at least two levels of voices. Those voices may be projected "aloud" (telepathically) or in whispers. One is an underlying loop play tape of recorded voices telling him that he is crazy, making deviant sexual suggestions, and deprecating the victim in many other ways. Another layer of voices are the actual handlers hammering away at the "crazy" theme, telling him lies about family and friends, and attempting to keep him from engaging in any meaningful activities. WITHOUT THE VOICES, MIND CONTROL CANNOT BE ACCOMPLISHED.

The handlers normally disguise their voices. Simulations can easily be made by computer programs readily available almost anywhere. Moreover, various handlers will alternate using the same voices; thus, causing the target to think that the same three or four voices that he hears are monitoring him twenty-four hours a day. In fact, oftentimes there is only one handler using three or four different simulated voices.

Satellite Surveillance And Electronic Harassment

I recently published a book about the true events surrounding a woman in Texas. She was controlled, attacked with directed energy, stalked and eventually drugged and raped. All made easy through the use of satellite surveillance. The stalkers were identified as a private investigative agency owned and operated by a former FBI agent. See www.satweapons.com and click on the publisher icon for the book.

To who it may concern....

I have been a victim of esmc since 2007.

I'm trying to find out how and who and stop it.....

They, since day one they have tried to insist its all about impregnating me...

I hope one day to tell my story and put these monsters behind bars....

They have tried to implement past lovers or acquaintances being involved...

This did start by texting [only] an acquaintance about work and life in general....

Then, POW.... You know the rest..... They always indicate the ring finger as this is about marriage and having a baby...

I'm 47 had a procedure and can't have children.... Can you impregnate this way.....

Please Help in Bellingham.....

Far out, I wish i could (help).

Working on it, but at a depersonalised level.

The governments ARE responsible regardless of their responses or lack thereof, as a "DUTY OF CARE" under the U.N Universal Declaration Of Human Rights, ie: BELIEFS, mere BELIEFS, are DEPENDABLE thus, and have been so defended MANY MANY times.

They do it to me too, but i am a slightly special-case.

I look like Jesus.

I haven't heard the "clicking" since the late nineties before a major escalation of the attack symptoms familiar to all of us...

My professional credibility is what was attacked most in my opinion.

Recent events include trying very hard to warn "Alison Kruse" of "ufolaserbeam" youtube fame, NOT to associate with every tom dick and harry because of what she was doing (accused of hoaxing UFO footage under circumstances that, AT FIRST, appeared genuine)
... the mugs ganged up on me at this time, and she won't respond to my emails. I have been greatly concerned that she has been "disappeared".

She seemed like a nice enough young lady, and was completely new to the UFO phenomenon and folklore so when she began regurgitating "new age" bunkum (eg including 2012 nonsense) I knew her (large) circle of friends had been infiltrated by what I refer to as "the enemy"... at a point where it looked like I had found the perfect scenario to divulge the phenomenon TI material to the world, they isolated me (again), resumed new approaches in their 12 year "noise campaign" (wherever i go), lied to my neighbours, and aggravated an acquaintance into trying to attack me on several occasions - that person's head is filled with crap about how UFO's are not real. they friggin' ARE.

All it means is USAF refuses or is unable to CLASSIFY a given flying object in such a way as all parties are convinced. Such things exist. The planes that hit the world trade centre are UFOs to some degree because the witnesses nearly all state that the planes were NOT American airlines or even had no windows and thus were NOT passenger jets, even though the official reports say they were. On a technicality, that means they are "unidentified";- they have not been SATISFACTORILY identified. Public disclosure of the "Active Denial System" and some of the horrors of electronic mind control occurred at a pentagon level in early 2001. THAT was the precipitant event, in my opinion, and i fail to see how it could be any other, yet all our governments are concerned that we'd revolt.

What makes more sense to declare a so-called "Holy War" under?

"Blood-for-Oil" or "Voices in The Head"?

If it was just blood-for-oil, it'd be just another war.

Again, i really wish i could help.

It's time to scrap the rules and start writing them all from scratch again. For democracy's sake, this will require input from all. The bright side of the TI phenomenon is that they have caused people to unite. All the problems facing the world are solvable by reducing the human population, sad-to-say, and there are around 6billion people in the world whose fault this is. You are not one of those people.

My best advice might have to be: know the stark difference between "objective" and "subjective" studies, then choose to study something objective, to fill the time, keep you busy, and have something usable when the shit REALLY hits the fan, eg: maths, physics, electronics, ... ie: the well-worn saying "KNOW thy ENEMY".

... Subjective studies into things like human behavioural psychology will fail, as they are too open to opinion and debate. better yet, with some luck perhaps, who knows, these same "arts" of "mind" will expose the perps eventually in one fell swoop. Being scientifically methodical about SOMETHING, with practice, will help, because it will train you to use YOUR mind... while they don't even use theirs... and such practice will aid in your arguments if a case may ever develop to sue them etc.

Myself, if I had remained on the track I began on, to become a Graphic Artist or Fine Artist I think the TI stuff that I have endured may have won the day. Instead: I know EXACTLY how potentially viable the equipment suggested IS, because I studied electronics, can read a circuit diagram and get a gist of how it operates. I've seen diagrams of the equipment and it concurs. For nearly 12 years, however, I have been a victim, and have postulated the methods that might have been used... I boycotted the internet until last Christmas.

Now, obviously, I have the internet... it was a gift... out of sympathy... and now the one thing i CAN'T remember in all this that might be important is HOW i STUMBLED across the first links into the forums, the blogs, the websites, that deal with this phenomenon and actually confirmed my suspicions and fears were real. Common story that. YEARS of it, and THOROUGHLY isolated.

MY stuff appeared to have begun by developing a friendship with a person who claimed to have been hired by A.S.I.O, one of our security agencies, to kill people.

I've since said I believe it should be classed as an offence to brag about such things to common civilians. He filled my head with bullshit about not simply "taking" bullcrap from people, but fighting back. I fought back, and the corrupt police we have here nabbed me as the CAUSE of the altercations with multiple false witnesses, instead of chasing the perps, and that so-called "friend" disappeared from my life. Common story.

I'm now very pissed off with a lot of people and i guess tones creep into my text... don't worry, I capitalise words for emphasis, am not yelling at you.

I think you'll need to focus on being 100% INDEPENDENT (kind of trendy, really; a bright-side) whilst finding a way to not be *isolated*. In my years of experience with this, I have found it beneficial to be around random groups of people, whether i REALLY LIKE THEM OR NOT, because it's damn hard for "them" to put voices in my head at the same time as there is a conversation involving me as a party to that conversation. I'm pretty sure this means that the mechanical movement of the parts of the inner ear have a stronger signal upon our own brain than the perps' interferences...

Unless perhaps they "crank up the juice" in which case, I'm pretty sure, though it's hard to be scientific about this, i'm pretty sure the signals will be perceived by others in the vicinity, and, with expert attention to this may aid in a process known as "triangulation", allowing us to locate the SOURCE of the bullcrap and lies in the head. It seems to me that's "their" worst-case scenario right there. They'll get whacked. Sadly, it's very hard to get many people to believe us, so I'm not sure how likely this "triangulation" will be in the near-future.

Other thinkings have led me to suggest if we could do a "hands around the world" type of thing, like EarthDay, turning lights off... except with this, turn off EVERYTHING electronic for DAYS and these twerps, the perps, I think, since they are obviously CATEGORICALLY OBSESSED, would give themselves away... they wouldn't be able to help themselves, and they wouldn't be able to hide in the radio static anymore... But, it's just too big an action plan, and it's not my forte to outline a strategic plan to rid us of these scumbags.

So, be warned, also. I have spent many hours, days, weeks, months and years in this, only finding verification recently on the net... I have thought long and hard about it and this is the best solution I can come up with. I tend to solve problems rather well, so I will not be very surprised if something much like this action plan is implemented... if only the governments would set about establishing our trust by taking NOTICE of these issues, instead of the usual news fodder.

I don't know if I've been of help. Often I am told I'm not. But I gave it a go.

Get Free From Mind Control - Mind Control Triggers!

Mind Control Triggers! How To Get Free!

Chapter Sixty One.

Part II

“The Backdoors into the minds of the Fractured Children of the Hidden Goat Lineage!”

My Little One, I am your Father Yahweh, yea Jehovah, Most High God! At this sitting, I will bring you back to the hidden goat lineage of Satan! And, I will continue to teach you regarding the fractured child/children, who is/are manifest in the abused children of the hidden goat lineage.

My Little One, at this time I shall address the back doors of mind control, which are inherent into the minds of many of these fractured children, some of them having more backdoors than others. From an early age, many of these little ones have been traumatized and mind controlled by their satanic/human handlers!

I stress here two types of handlers and I make a distinction here between handlers and demons! For, although demons do exert a great control, I am not speaking of them, but handlers! And, these are the two types of handlers: 1. human handlers; 2. and Satanic handlers, which include those, who are of Satan's own, whom, many refer to as “greys”, “reptiles”, “insectoids”, and various other workers, who work directly under Satan and who serve him, of his own kind, and of his own mindset, and pure genetic makeup!

These hidden ones will always exert a hidden control over these abused children of the hidden goat lineage! And, this hidden control will come via backdoors into the mind of the fractured child! On these backdoors will manifest certain images, non-verbal cues, words, phrases and simple commands, which, when presented, will shut down a behavior or direction, which is deemed unacceptable by the handlers!

One thing, which the handlers deem as unacceptable is the truth that their influence will be known and recognized and also terminated! Therefore, any attempt to uncover these controllers and to uncover their backdoors into the mind of the fractured child will be met often with intense emotional upheaval, denial, angry outbursts, and other means of emotional overload within the one, who is under mind control! For, the controllers, on seeing what is taking place, will unleash a series of behavioral commands and controls, which will serve to bring about great despair, unrest, anger, apathy, or even sedation within the mind of such a victim!

For, there exist in these backdoors certain “trigger” words or phrases! And, when these “trigger” words or phrases are spoken and brought into conscious or even subconscious awareness, these words or phrases will thereby proceed to unlock well-learned and well-scripted behaviors, which will provoke an automatic response! This is deep-seated and deep-rooted mind control; and there will come often a seeming detachment in emotional continuity, as if a breaker has just tripped in an electrical box. This discontinuity of behavior will often manifest as a monotonous and expressionless characterization of often meaningless and nonsensical behaviors!

Others will term such behaviors as “spaced-out,” as “goofy”, as disconnected, or disjointed behavior, and such behaviors will be monotonous and absolutely counterproductive. Such a stream of behaviors can go on for hours, with a corresponding loss of time and unaccounted for delays, wherein a great amount of time lapses but with little accountability for this loss! Hours can thereby be spent in meaningless pursuits, with endless delays, procrastinations, with corresponding mindless verbal excuses and delays!

Remember that I am speaking here of backdoors into the mind of the fractured child, words, images, phrases, and sentences, which, when projected into the thinking, or into the subconscious thinking of the individual will trigger a string of automatic behaviors. Often, this victim is unaware of just what happened in this time lapse and quite often nothing did happen of any great consequence! But, at times other shocking and automatic behaviors do happen, the victim being totally oblivious to just what has happened! This is the case, My Little One, in all automatic killings, wherein the victim has gone on a killing rampage, only to turn, thereafter, and to kill himself!

My Little One, such a one could spend many, many years in expensive psychotherapy and still be under the control of the controllers! For, when one such trigger word or phrase is found, the controllers are back with more of the same! Only I can go into the backdoors and dissolve the power of such words, phrases or images and free one from such abuse! And, only I am able to clean remove the controllers, human and otherwise, who have been pulling the strings from behind the scenes in the lives of so many of these, even since and even before birth!

So, My Little One, I add here this dilemma of the hidden, or backdoors into the minds of these of the hidden goat lineage; and warn you and all, who would work with these, who were so abused as children and still as adults, that these doors are real! These trigger words and phrases are real and the resultant and detached behaviors are real! Therefore, be observant of any monotonous behaviors of "suddenly going through the motions." For, by observation, you will see the results of those, who manipulate through the hidden backdoors!

Remember that these "triggers" may not always be words or phrases, but also sharp images, which will seem to totally disable the fractured child and to lock it into an automatic mode! When such behavior is observed, seek Me in prayer; for only I am able to clean out such hidden backdoors and to correct prolonged, meaningless, speech patterns, which are deeply imbedded recordings in the emotional/mental databases of these fractured children!

These prolonged and repetitive, verbal patterns serve no purpose other than to hold captive the fractured child and to monopolize the time of others with empty verbal assaults. These empty, verbal assaults can actually serve as a weapon against all, who would try to help them! For, after a while, those, who are barraged with these empty, verbal assaults, will seek to be free of them, realizing that such one-sided conversations are a waste of time!

This is what the handlers and controllers want, all in order to further isolate such victims, and to cut off all meaningful relationships. Therefore, when such automatic and meaningless behavior is observed, it is most important to seek me in prayer, asking that I not only destroy the impact of all trigger words, phrases, and or images, but also asking that I destroy and clean remove all hidden, as well as obvious, controllers! Remember to seek me and ask me in prayer to clean dissolve all hidden trigger "images," for these, when projected into the mind, can trigger powerful and quick emotional responses!

In any one individual, there may be many such backdoors; and some of these doors, being deeply hidden! So, the prayer needs to be to ask Me to go in and to find all hidden backdoors and to utterly destroy them all, so that no back doors of any kind remain and no hidden controllers of any kind are left standing! Furthermore, the extended prayer needs to be for Me to put up holy hedges of protection within all areas of the mind of the fractured child, so that no more hidden doors can be put into place and no more handlers can be set up in positions of control over these souls!

Seek Me further in prayer, asking that I raise up and establish that I place powerful angels of great light in all of these areas within the minds of such individuals, where there have been such hidden doors. These angels will thereby serve to prohibit the establishment of such doors again and will thereby also prohibit the establishment of such controllers and such hidden trigger words of mind control!

My Little One, it is very important to address the hidden doors through this way in prayers to Me! For, all of the mind controllers use hidden doors and hidden cues, trigger words and visual images to utterly control their victims! And, not all of their victims are of the Satanic lineage! So, if there be any among you, who suspect that there could be any backdoors into your thought processes, or into the thought processes of anyone, whom you know, pray as I have so directed herein! For, I will honor this prayer on behalf of many, who have fallen under mind control the world over!

Be advised, however, My Little One, that there is one condition under which I will not honor this prayer on behalf of others, who are under obvious mind control, this condition being wherein a certain one agrees to undergo mind control, as is the case with many, many in the intelligence services and among those, who have top secret clearances, these being among others, who are in satanic secret services! In such situations, the one, who is under mind control, has agreed to it and this one must thereby come to Me in prayer under his or her own volition, asking Me for this freedom through the above prayer! I will not override the free will of any, who clearly choose mind control!

Furthermore, I wish to address here that these hidden backdoors, which are full of hidden and subtle mind control messages exist in untold millions, and have been carefully laid in the unsuspecting minds of untold millions of people! They have been carefully laid via constant barrages of mind control messages, which are inherent in massive television programming, radio programming, sleep programming in those, who fall asleep while watching television or who sleep with the television on, or through the massive implanting of the unsuspecting population, via brain and neural implants.

Therefore, every person could possibly benefit by appealing to Me through prayer for the cleaning away of these hidden back doors and hidden mind control directives, or trigger words, phrases, sentences or images, even as I have so directed. For, the amount of mind control, which is in the masses, whether through the above methods, or via video games, or other mindless, hypnotic behaviors, is massive all over the world!

So, through this prayer, which I have promised to honor, when prayed as I have directed, I will help free millions upon millions of souls and allow them to grow spiritually, when previous to this prayer, they found it impossible to connect to Me spiritually! Therefore, I give this spiritual prayer at this time as a spiritual weapon for the salvation of many, many souls! For, this is My love for the captives and My promise to you, My Blessed Child, that I would allow you to see the salvation of the greatest numbers of souls!

With this said, I will stop for now. I am your Father Yahweh, yea Jehovah, Most High God!

Part III

“A Prayer of Deliverance for those, who suffer from hidden mind control!”

Blessed and Holy Father, beautiful and glorious Most High God, I come back to you today, Father, to ask for clarification regarding certain things and in particular, Father, regarding Your message in chapter Sixty-one of Book Twelve! This message, Father, is the prayer, which you would have others to pray regarding hidden mind control.

Father, my question is this: Would you give me, through Your Spirit, a particular prayer for Your people, that if any, who wish deliverance from such terrible mind control, would stand in agreement with me in this prayer, their hearts of one accord with mine, for the deliverance from such terrible mind control, that you would honor such a prayer!

And, Father, these are my reasons for asking that you give me such a prayer through Your Spirit: 1. Father many people, especially the severely oppressed, do not know how to pray! 2. Father, secondly, they do not know how to pray from their hearts, but only through their minds! And, Father, you told me some years back that mind prayers fall to the ground, that mind prayers do not reach you, that we must pray from our hearts! But, Father, You know that many have hearts that are so dark and full of so many demons, that the prayers cannot come from their hearts! Therefore, Father, for these reasons, I am concerned that those, who need the most help through this prayer, even when they pray as You have so directed, will not be heard! For, their prayers may not reach you!

Very well said, My Little One; and your concerns herein are grounded in reality! Therefore, I will touch your heart through My Spirit to pray a prayer, which when prayed to Me by those, who are under mind control, even if they pray only through the agreements of their minds and with only a very small, or even absence of agreement within their hearts, I will hear this prayer!

Furthermore, I will release untold millions of angels of mercy, whose job is also to listen for these, who recite this prayer and who so long to be free! These angels will collect these prayers unto Me! Therefore, it is important for all, who want deliverance from mind control, to take this prayer and to continue to recite it and believe and trust in Me until they begin to feel the freedom of deliverance! The angels must collect these prayers and bring them to me; for in these cases, these, who are so much under mind control, will be devoid of My Spirit. For this reason, it is necessary for these, who want to be free of mind control to hold tightly to this prayer and to repeat it daily, even several times a day! And, the angels, whom I dispense, will be on the lookout for this prayer, which I will now release unto you via My Holy Spirit!

Herein follows this prayer as given to you for My people, as it comes to you via My Spirit:

Holy Prayer for Deliverance and Freedom for the Victims of Extraneous Mind Control!

Oh Blessed and Holy Father, God of All Creation, Lord of Lords and King of Kings, Mighty and Holy Deliverer of Your people! Hear me, Oh Blessed Father, as I come now on behalf of myself (or "name of another person") and I beg You to deliver me from the effects of extraneous mind control! Father, I understand that this mind control has entered into me from sources, who are outside of me and that this mind control has caused a great and dark shadow over my whole life! Father, it seems to me that any good intentions on my part are blocked! For some time, there has existed a series of road blocks and many obstacles, which when I would try to overcome them, I would only meet with more obstacles.

Father, life has been so hard for me, and now I appeal to you, that if there be any extraneous mind control on me, Father, that You would burn it out of me! Clean burn out of me, Father, with your holy fires, any and all verbal and non-verbal cues, whether conscious, or subliminal, any hidden “trigger” words, phrases, or sentences and all images, which have been programmed into me to elicit certain well-learned responses!

Father, please burn up totally and destroy absolutely any such mind control “triggers”, which are hidden in me, and which are well hidden behind any hidden mind control doors. Father, You are able to see all such “trigger” words, phrases, sentences, cues, and images in me and I so deeply desire that You burn them up totally and that You do not leave so much as a vestige of these things in me!

Father, I also ask You to burn up and consume in Your holy fires all such hidden mind control doors, and that no such doors remain in me! Father, please do not leave even one fragment of any such door remaining. Thereafter, Father, I ask You to place holy hedges around my whole mind and throughout my whole mind and to make these holy hedges permanent hedges of protection in me, Father, and that no such evil mind control will ever have such power over me, ever again!

Thereafter, Father, I ask You to set up powerful angels of protection in the midst of these holy hedges and to prohibit, absolutely prohibit, any such mind control in me, ever again. And, lastly, Father, I ask You to punish severely all, who have perpetrated such mind control on me! For, it has been done to me without my conscious awareness or permission and I so desperately wish to be free!

Father, forgive me of my sins! Purge and purify my thoughts and my memories with Your holy fires! Purge and purify my heart with Your holy fires! Have mercy on me, oh Mighty King; for I realize that through this prayer, I have only addressed mind control from extraneous sources; and I have not addressed mind control, which comes from the many demons, who may also occupy my body!

Father, I am a prisoner and have been a prisoner for a long time! I have been cut off from Your Spirit and this terrible mind control has left me weak and without direction, Father, even as a wayward traveler through this sphere.

Father, I long to be free! Father, I long to have your Spirit and to know You! Will I continue to sojourn through this sphere as a wayward and lonely traveler? Please, Father, have mercy on me; for I am a sheep, who is lost from the fold! Father, I am a continual prey for the wolves and cannot advance spiritually; for I am cut off from Your Spirit!

Father, have mercy on me and please give Me Your Spirit! Deliver me, oh Holy King, from my oppressors; for I am alone, Father, so full of anguish and heartache! Father, in the Holy Name of Jesus, our Mighty Saviour, hear my cries! Amen!

As dictated by the Spirit of God, a prayer for all, who suffer the terrible effects of any kind of mind control! Given on this 24th day of November, 2009, Linda Newkirk

(COPY THIS PRAYER AND KEEP THIS PRAYER IN A VERY SAFE PLACE! There will come a time when the mind control/ re-education camps will be filled to capacity right here in this nation! But, even now mind control is rampant, not only in America, but worldwide! My Dear Ones, wherever you are, just know that as you say this prayer, I stand in agreement with you! Before our Mighty King and Saviour, my heart agrees with you for your total freedom and complete deliverance from the horrors of mind control!)

OUR FATHER CONTINUES ...

My Little One, I will hear this prayer! I will also honor this prayer even when it is prayed on behalf of others! Just substitute the name or names of the others in the places of “me” and “my!”

But, Father, this prayer is for those, who are under mind control from extraneous sources, even as you have previously told. Father would You list some of these extraneous sources.

My Little One, I will! As I have told you, My Little One, abused children of the hidden goat lineage are major targets. Some of these of the hidden goat lineage are sharply and heavily targeted, and some, more than others. Those, who are sharply and heavily targeted, will be like puppets, who are on very short and tight strings. For, these, who are on such tight and short stings, carry out and have carried out very specific mind controlled functions for their handlers, in particular such functions as serial killers, spies, breeders, sex slaves, etc.

These, who are on very short strings, or mind control leashes, will be closely watched and will be under the most severe forms of mind control and as such will often be used, from time to time, by the U.S. Military, and other militaries for covert operations! For, this reason, they always keep the backdoors open and fully functional through their various “trigger” words and cues, using their victims regularly, and most often without their conscious awareness or permission. In these cases, their handlers are most often both military (humans) and Satanic, meaning non-human servants of Satan. These, who are on such short leads, will not get free, not under any conditions, unless I set them free! For, these of whom I speak, are also “of the hidden goat Satanic lineage,” and Satan has a legal claim on them.

The mind control, which I am addressing herein comes from sources, which are coming from the outside, that is extraneous to the individual. And, it comes via psychiatrists and other types of handlers as well as non-human entities. Therefore, it is rightly termed as extraneous mind control.

Extraneous mind control is also rampant in this world and it comes both through implant technology, the implants being both brain implants and implants, which follow the neural pathways to the brain. Most of this implant technology cannot be removed by normal means; for it is too pervasive! And, this, I will address more in later messages.

But, here I wish to address backdoors and automatic behavior, which is due to mind control cues and trigger words. And, many such trigger words, phrases, and subliminal messages appear widely on television, radio, internet, and various sorts of publications. Some individuals are more susceptible to such mind control than others. Any, who abuse alcohol or drugs, are prime candidates; for in their alcoholic or drug induced stupors, such messages are more readily programmed deeply into the mind, or thought processes, and will thereby more easily cause automatic behaviors. Also, my Dear One, it is most assuredly true that drug-induced mind control is frequently used by all handlers, human and otherwise, in all kinds of extraneous mind control! And, indeed such kinds of mind control is often very quick and effective. Yes, this is a terrible blight upon the whole world and few are the wiser!

Others, who are under certain sources of hidden mind control are many within the military services! Many, who are in the military services have brain and neural implants and also have them in their bodies without their conscious awareness or consent. It is through the presence of such implant technology that hidden backdoors, mind control cues and triggers can be set up in vast numbers and programmed through the use of cell towers, televisions, movies, etc. Mind control triggers may therefore, appear in such places as the evening news on television, at commercial breaks on television, and at other times, released to the mind control victim (s) to elicit certain automatic behaviors. Such mind control cues or triggers may also be released to the victim through “strange” telephone call messages, or even through caller IDs.

In addition, many in the police forces are heavily laden with such implants and backdoor mind control messages, triggers words and cues. Most, who are in the various governmental bodies over this nation, and also over other nations, are micro-chipped, and under various forms of mind control, many of them being little more than robotic arms of Satan! The same is also true at the state levels of government within this nation, but in some cases not as severe.

My Little One, total and near total mind control is also exerted on many, who are in prison, or in mental hospitals, most often without their conscious knowledge or consent. This whole area of mind control, which is rampant all over the world, is greater than any could ever imagine.

And, I have not addressed yet the degree of mind control, which is exerted upon such huge numbers by the demons, who are inherent in them. This is a different kind of mind control, but is severe, My Little One, just as severe and just as real as the extraneous mind control. This mind control, which is exerted by the demons, who reside within these individuals, is called herein intrinsic mind control.

Many should be able to see, to know, to understand why the world is in such a mess and only through My overflowing love, mercy and grace and forgiveness will any be saved!

My Little One, I wish to add herein that I have given this prayer to you on behalf of My people! For, you are the Woman of Revelation Chapter Twelve, the spiritual mother of My Little Son, who lives in you and who has now lived in you for over forty-two months. My Blessed Child, you have paid a heavy price to “see the salvation of the greatest numbers of souls.” And, this has been My promise to you, since early summer of 2004, that I would give you this desire of your heart. This prayer is but one facet of the manifestation of that desire! For, many, who are set free of mind control, will then turn and serve Me.

Blessed are you, My Little One; for you have paid a heavy price to receive this prayer, one, which I will surely honor on behalf of My people! Now, I come again to you and I ask you, My Little One, what would you desire of Me! For, a great and mighty calling is being given to you; and you will walk in this earth with great power and will do many marvelous works for me and for My children.

Father, I only ask You to give me a greater servant’s heart and that Father, You fill this servant’s heart with all of the beautiful attributes of You that You want in this servant’s heart! This is what I now ask of You, Father. I only wish to have a greater servant’s heart and that You enlarge Yourself in me in this way.

So, it shall be with you, My Little One, and what more would you, or could you ask for? For, you are spiritual mother to the House of Israel and spiritual mother to My Manifest Sons of God. Blessed are you, My Little One; for your request pleases Me. However, I shall give you so much more, so much more than you could ever imagine! Yes, indeed, there will come to you various and manifold keys to My very Kingdom and these are everlasting. I am pleased in you, My Little One, Blessed Child of Mine. For, you have heard My call to holiness and My cup of holiness in you is full to overflowing.

Father, I am so humbled and afraid! Have mercy on me, Father, for I do not know how I could possibly deal with such a calling. Father, I am but dust, as ashes is to ashes; and I so fear Your mighty power and Your mighty hand. Father, I only desire to be a servant and am happy at the end of the line. Father, I wish no honor for myself and am afraid before You.

This is known, My Little One and this is why you asked me to give you a greater servant's heart. For, you only desire to serve Me first above all, and to be of service to your brothers and sisters. Therefore, I will exalt you among My people; for only a true servant am I able to exalt.

Still, Father, you say, "exalt," and this frightens me. For, I do not wish to be exalted, only to be a lowly servant and being at the back of the line is fine with me.

Be not troubled, My Little One; for what I give you will be a calling of great love, mercy, and grace and you will walk humbly before Me in all that I give you; for you fear me.

Father, I wish to fear you always; for You are Almighty! Therefore, Father, I do ask of You one more thing and that is that You will put into me a deep fear of You and that such a deep fear of You will be with me always, for I desire to walk humbly before You always. Father, I ask for this gift from You, and that it will be an intricate part of me, which follows me throughout the eternities.

Well said, My Little One! Even as you so seek, I now give!

But, Father, neither do I wish to be overpowered by this fear, but that this fear of You is balanced with a profound, deep and exceedingly great love for You!

This is understood well on My part, My Little One. So it is with you and so it shall be!

And, with this, we shall stop for now. I am your Father Yahweh, yea Jehovah, Most High God, Electronic attack and harassment occurring in Australia too.

I am currently a victim. I believe my children and family (parents) are also being harassed. phones tapped. Surveillance. Tinnitus. Crawling over the skull. pin pricks. Replays of my dog barks, music sessions and daughter crying as if heard driving by turned up in someone's car. complete cramping, paralyzing of leg, popping lower disc and sciatic 'seems to dissolve after some nights asleep'. I revive it with ice packs.

Sometimes where the electric sensation seems to drive a dull bullet into my skull, i feel a depression. It tingles for some time and my finger placed on the spot (about size of coin) slowly disappears if detected. Some areas under attack (especially head) form a small bubble or dent in flesh. Placing a magnet or finger on the vibrating dent will draw it back to normal. This happened (swelling) in my ears and i was able to draw the tinnitus out by inserting small, powerful magnets.

The bubble appeared above my right tooth and gave me intense abscess like pain. It was also removed after i discovered gentle, constant pressure from a finger or magnet could take the bubble away (like an ulcer). I got the panic disorder electromagnetic pulse in 2008. I panicked and thought I had metastatic cancer or high blood pressure. When I think back, I monitored my blood pressure and it was always significantly higher on one side of my body.

I sometimes have my genital areas stimulated by a buzzing force and this makes me sexually vulnerable...it always happens after my head has felt 'clenched' for sometime like a tight 'skullcap' and I am vulnerable, susceptible to suggestion and feeling somehow ayurvedic and blissed. Sometimes it just causes stress and premature, instant wrinkles above the outer corner of my eyebrows.

I am sure I was raped. I must constantly use face cream and rehydrate. This has all gone on for some years. They sent me mad. I lost my family and belongings. My credibility destroyed after a break down. Malicious false rumours were started. I was hospitalised, diagnosed and medicated. Nobody believes me. It is impossible to prove. I think I could measure it with a Gauss meter but I guess they would cease to Electronically attack me if I turned it on in front of others.

I have not heard voices in my head yet, thank god. I suspect I was made a victim because I believe in freedom of expression, the right to protest and make slow change to the world, human rights and because I sometimes smoked pot (only socially, spiritually and for the purpose of art). Pot is the only relief. The effects are definitely not side effects or withdrawal symptoms for drugs, which they will suggest to make you out to be an addict.

They burned all paperwork that could prove errors in any system. Who are they? Government and scientists, military experiments, classified projects. Wherever you go they will locate you with infrared imaging devices. There is nowhere to run.

Throughout this ordeal, which i have concluded will never end, i have been treated as brain dead except from those who take the time to actually converse with me. I wonder whose revenge it is? LOL. All you can do is laugh in the end, as you slowly retard and lose your beautiful memories and all love, possibility of steady employment.

The best way to survive would be on the move (slowing or lessening their attack), especially into forests, never settling and surviving without the system (i.e. charity, bush food, hunter gather). It never ends. It induces thought disorder too and potentially permanent damage.

I figured it out through research but have met military personnel who disclosed snippets of information to me. I was researching for my own protection. Some thought i was so knowledgeable that I worked in the field of electromagnetics and were surprised to discover I was a civilian.

They train students and they apply the gang stalking. I know the vibration is externally induced as I wore an armour of magnets and diamagnetic materials to stop the attack. I felt it shuddering against the protection but not in/on my head.

This armour only led to my admission to a mental ward and ridicule from everyone around, including my children being so embarrassed that they abandoned me and one became suicidal. He is 19 and told me recently that he sometimes has a ringing in the ears and can't sleep. I stayed there one night and there were tell tale signs.

I believe my family have also been brainwashed and, despite being well connected, have been treated like scum. My father signed a defaming form against me with the wrong address. even though he has lived there for almost 40 years. He now does not recall writing those things about me. I am not a satan worshiper, lesbian, prostitute, child abuser or mentally insane and out of touch with reality. I have never experienced anything more real in my life, forcing me to face the harsh cruelty of it all.

I am amazed it is allowed to happen to innocent civilians, in times of peace in their nation, as if they were hostages of brutal war exposed to war crimes. I thought human rights and Amnesty International, Geneva convention banned such cruelty from even frontline war zones.

So much for the fight for the constitution and against fascism...electromagnetics are undoing the purpose that every great war fought for: freedom and humane, non-barbaric behaviour.

Where are the mass graves for the Electromagnetic warfare victims? The only reason they don't exist is because the victims are spread out and isolated throughout the world, their deaths disguised.

I met others in the mental institute whose skin crawled and tendons or inner flesh seemed to 'burn', who had buzzing invisible bullet dents on their heads and the same methods helped temporarily relieve them.
